A students' global mobilisation urging UN Member States to commit to ocean protection. Through education, collaboration, citizenship and ocean action, this initiative amplifies student's voices to shape the future.

UNOC3

the 3rd United Nations Ocean Conference will take place in June in Nice, France.

WORLD LEADERS

will gather to decide the future of the ocean and the need to protect 30% of the ocean by 2030.

voices from around the world must be heard!
